Dear Mr Louw,

In the absence of the Director General, I thank you for drawing our attention to the events involving Mr. John Drury.

You will appreciate, I am sure, that it is not appropriate for a non-political organisation, such as IATA, to intervene until such time as the due process has been completed and all the facts are revealed.

Nevertheless, having been alerted, my staff will keep a close watch on developments to gauge whether airline or passenger interests are at stake.

Meanwhile, we appreciate the comprehensive information you have provided.

Yours sincerely,

Norman Jackson,
Senior Director-Technical.

cc: Director General.
